

Japan Social Development Fund Grant Proposal

Capacity Building for Sustainable Forest and Land Management

Sokh Heng

Objective

To help forest dependent communities, the Forestry Administration, NGO partners and local authorities to explore innovative approaches in collaborative forms of forest management participatory management

Expected Outputs

- Number of Community members and implementing partners trained
- Number of Formal Community Forestry Agreement in place
- Establishment of Functioning Community Forestry Monitoring and Evaluation System

Project Components

- Component A – Community Forestry Field Training Component
- Component B – Piloting Community Forestry Partnerships for Implementation
- Component C – Participatory Monitoring, Evaluation and Dissemination

The description of the component A

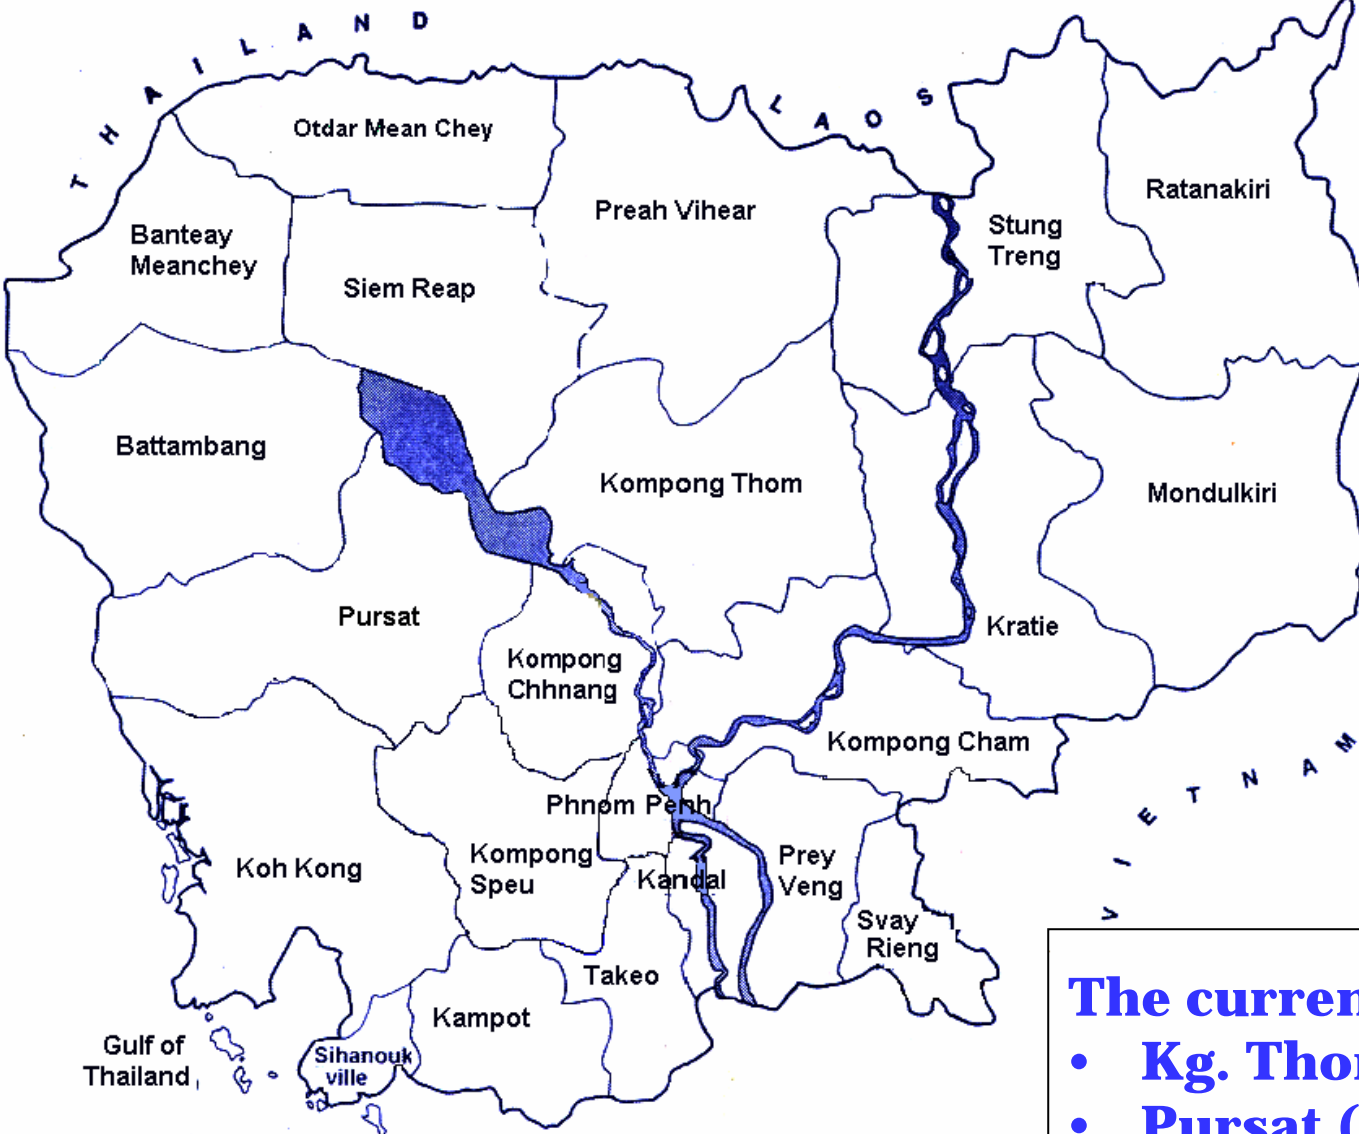

Community Forestry Field Training

- Train Community Forestry Committee members, FA field staff, NGOs, and local governments in CF Sub-decree and CF policies and programs.*
- Provide field-based training on methods for CF (8 steps for CF development)*
- Develop and deliver field-based trainers working closely with JICA partners and complementing their on-going training program for FA staff.*

The description of the component B

Piloting Community Forestry Partnerships for Implementation

- Register existing Community Forestry through collaborative partnership – FA staff, NGO staff, Local Government staff*
- Formulate model CF field support program; initiate CF pilot projects in 5 cantonments*
- Design and field test protocols and procedures for CF implementation.*

The current 5 cantonments :

- Kg. Thom (CF sites 25)
- Pursat (CF sites 40)
- Kratie (CF sites 14)
- Kampot (CF sites 5)
- Ratanakiri (CF sites 15)

The description of the component C

- Provide support to local communities and forest stakeholders to develop forest and land management monitoring networks through organizing field level workshops and meetings
- Provide support to FA/CFO to work with above networks and to engage in CF data collection, analysis and dissemination

Basic Information

- Grand Amount: USD 1.8 million
- Implementing Agency: NGO
- Project Management Unit: Based at FA
- Grand Recipient : ?

Thank for your attention!