

Stakeholders and their roles in NFP process

Sokh Heng
Chief, Community Forestry Office
Forestry Administration
Stakeholder Workshop on NFP
March 20, 2007

Background

- NFP is a participatory process and requires a broad inter-sectoral approach at all stages, including formulation of policies, strategies and action plans as well as their implementation, monitoring and evaluation.
- Key elements:
National forest statement, sector review, policy and legislative reform, strategy development, capacity building program, investment program, monitoring and evaluation system and coordination and participatory mechanisms

Main set of stakeholders

The four main sets of stakeholders in the forest are:

- 1. Governmental agencies
- 2. Civil society organisations
- 3. Private sector
- 4. Donors

1. Governmental agencies

- Forestry Administration
- Ministry of Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries
- Ministry of Environment
- Ministry of Industry, Mines and Energy
- Ministry of Land Management and Urban Planning and Construction (but does not fit within the direct implementing categorisation)

1. Governmental agencies

- Ministry of Interior
- Ministry of Economy and Finance
- Council of Ministers
-

2. Civil society organisations

Civil society organisations:

- mutual-benefit organisations community-based organisations (indigenous and introduced), trade unions, professional associations.
- public-benefit organisations are the NGOs.
public-benefit organisations can be categorised around three main areas of activity:
  - o Social
  - o Human rights
  - o Environment

3. Private sector

- Foreign investors and concessionaires
- The Cambodian Timber Industry Association
- Builders and furniture manufacturers

4. Donors

The two main types of donors are:

- 1. international financial institutions
- 2. bilateral donors

Both these sets of donor institutions have sustainable development goals linked to poverty reduction, as established through the Millennium Development Goals.

How are stakeholders involved?

- Meeting, workshop, conferences
- Internet debate
- Public hearing
- Discussions
- Joining the NFP Taskforce

Thank you

